Riverside Bicycle Path Map in Korea

Woryounggyo

1 2 Andongdam Certification Center — Geomamgyo

Distance : 15km / Estimated time : 60 minutes

Nakdonggang's bicycle path is the longest among the paths on Korea's four major rivers, so this itinerary takes a lot of time and physical endurance. Most travelers start from Andongdam or Sangpunggyo (Bridge) in Sangju. From Andongdam, the distance is 389km while it is 324km from Sangpunggyo, so it takes 3-4 days of steady pedaling to complete the course. Andongdam can be approached from Andong Intercity Bus Terminal or Andong Station. The distance from Andong Station is 3km less than from the bus terminal.

Nakdonggang's bicycle path, which began from Andongdam's Bicycle Path Certification Center, has several uphill from the beginning. It is also difficult to find supermarkets or convenience stores. It may be a good idea to prepare water and some snacks before you start.

2-3 Geomamgyo—Byeongsan-ri Hall for Seniors

Distance : 15km / Estimated time : 60 minutes

After leaving Geomamgyo (Bridge) and going up and down several hills, you'll find Danhogyo (Bridge). From there, you can visit Maaesolsup Park. If you have time, have a visit and rest under the shade of the great pine trees. Once you cross Danhogyo, you'll find another small bridge, and the bicycle path will break away from the river and lead into the village.

Andong

Andong is a city that carries on and preserves both Korea's traditional noble culture and its spirited and good-humored folk culture. Andong is a city in which we can still experience various aspects of our ancestors' lives, from the noble spirit of classic scholars to the lives of ordinary people. Hahoe Village, where visitors can experience Korea's most traditional culture, was added to the UNESCO World Heritage Site list in 2010. There are a lot of interesting things to see, enjoy and eat in Hahoe Village, including traditional Korean village sights, structures, foods, Hahoe masks and natural scenery.

3 4 Byeongsan-ri
Hall for Seniors—
Gudamgyo

Distance : 10km

Estimated time : 40 minutes

The bicycle path meets Nakdonggang (River) again before approaching Gwangdeokgyo (Bridge). Here you can find Andong Hahoe Village, a world heritage site designated by UNESCO, which will take you back 600 years. The bicycle path is set along Nakdonggang and across Andong fields, which go past Gudamgyo (Bridge) and Yecheon.

Andong Hahoe Village

Andong Hahoe Village

Hahoe Village is home to descendants of the Ryu clan of Pungsan and is well-known for its traditional houses. The village became even more famous after Queen Elizabeth of England visited on April 21, 1999. The village is located at the foothills of Hwasan Mountain, an offshoot of Taebaek Mountain that rises up to the east. The center of the village is populated by large tile-roofed houses belonging to the Ryu clan, adding their own unique charm to the surrounding thatched roofs. Hahoe Village boasts exquisite scenic sights: the elegant Nakdonggang flowing around the village, the magnificent Buyongdae, endlessly unfolding sandy beaches, and lush, ancient pine trees.

4 5 Gudamgyo – Cheongun 3-ri Village Hall

Distance : 20km

Estimated time : 80 minutes

The bicycle path leading into Yecheon offers great scenery, with a wide riverside and harmonious, simple villages. You'll also find Pungjigyo (Bridge) along the way, which has been built specially for bicycles. Once you reach Pungyang-myeon, you have to break away from the river again. There are many areas without bicycle paths, so please be careful.

Samgang Tavern

A traditional tavern from the late Joseon Dynasty. It is located in Samgang-ri, Pungyang-myeon, Yecheon-gun. Built around 1900, it offered meals and rooms for travelers, peddlers and boatmen. The tavern still retains its original appearance, and you can finish off the day with a glass of takju. The 500-year-old locust tree is another popular attraction that you don't want to miss.

5 6 Cheongun 3-ri Village Hall – Gyeongcheondae

Distance : 18km
 Estimated time : 70 minutes
 The Nakdonggang bicycle path that started at Andongdam joins Saejae bicycle path at Sangpunggyo (Bridge) in Sangju and becomes the National Bicycle Path for Nakdonggang. The bicycle path certification center is located in Sangpunggyo, so make sure you get a certification stamp. The center is near Sabeol-myeon, Sangju-si, which is just across Yecheon-gun. Nakdonggang gets wider as it reaches Sangju, and really looks magnificent.

Sangju, the City of Bicycles

Sangju is known as the city of bicycles. The entire city consists of fairly flat terrain, so it's easy to travel around on a bike. The City Hall and the District Office even lend out bicycles for free. With 104,000 residents, there are 85,000 bicycles, which means there are 2 for each household.

Gyeongcheondae

6 7 Gyeongcheondae—
Nakdanbo Certification Center

Distance : 22km / Estimated time : 90 minutes
 Gyeongcheondae (Cliff) offers some of the most beautiful scenery found on Nakdonggang. If you ride along the path, you can reach Sangjubo (Weir), the first weir for irrigation in Nakdonggang. The path that connects Sangjubo (Weir) and Nakdanbo (Weir) has Naksan's old paths, boat paths, ascending paths and shelters, so you can really enjoy the ride.

Gyeongcheondae

Located in Samdeok-ri, Sabeol-myeon, Sangju-si, the area was chosen as the best vantage point to grasp views of the Nakdonggang. The cliffs, wide sandy beach, and river shining in the sunlight are marvelous. As locals believe it is granted by god himself, it is also called "Jacheondae." The pine tree rooted on the cliff side facing the Nakdonggang as well as the crane shaped Cheonjubong (Peak) is especially memorable.

Nakdanbo

7 8 Nakdanbo Certification Center – Iseongyo
 Distance : 17km / Estimated time : 70 minutes

The Nakdanbo (Weir), the second weir for irrigation of Nakdonggang, is located in the former site of Nakdongnaru (Port). The name 'Nakdan' came from Nakdong-myeon, Sangju-si's 'Nak' and Danmil-myeon, Uiseong-gun's 'Dan'. Get a stamp from Nakdanbo Certification Center, and then continue riding along the path. The open landscape of Nakdonggang and the peaceful scenery of Uiseong-gun will grab your attention and help you get over your exhaustion.

Uiseong-gun

Uiseong, the place you will slide by, is a small city famous for garlic and cornelian cherries. The city is well-known for local specialties such as garlic beef, garlic pork and garlic ham, all of which are made from animals that were fed garlic. The garlic chicken cooked with raw garlic is a special delicacy that you can enjoy only at Uiseong. The cornelian cherries, another symbol of Uiseong, reach full blossom at the end of March and early April every year. The cornelian cherry festival is held during this period, and attracts many tourists.

Gumibo

Ilseonggyo – Gumi Youth Training Center

Distance : 10km / Estimated time : 40 minutes

The bicycle path along Nakdonggang (River) leads to Haepyeong Wetland, occupying a vast area of about 132,000m² in Haepyeong-myeon, Gumi-si, Gyeongsangbuk-do. The wetland, filled with Korean king willows and reeds, is also home to numerous migratory birds traveling from Russia to Japan during the winter. Gumibo Certification Center, located around the Haepyeong Wetland, serves as a stop for travelers, from which bicycle path further stretches along National Road No. 25.

Gumi Haepyeong Market

A regular market was established from the early 1920s. In the 1960s and 1970s, when Gumi Haepyeong Market was prosperous, a cattle market flourished and about 200 to 300 bulls and cows were traded each day. Gumi Haepyeong Market, which still exists as a traditional market, opens every 5 days, on the 4th, 9th, 14th, 19th, 24th and 29th of every month. The market opens early in the morning and closes around 3 pm, and not only features Haepyeong Clean Rice (or Geumosan Clean Rice), which is renowned for its cleanness, but also includes a wide range of seasonal agricultural products such as watermelons, oriental melons, peanuts, peppers and garlic that are cultivated in the fertile land and clean environment near Nakdonggang, as well as a variety of household items. ☎ 149-4, Nakseong-ri, Haepyeong-myeon, Gumi-si, Gyeongsangbuk-do 📞 054-480-6612, 054-474-4205

 Distance : 16km / Estimated time : 60 minutes

The 3.6 kilometer-long bicycle path which starts from the Kumho National Institute of Technology (KIT) offers bicyclists the feeling exhilarating speed as they ride at the foot of the cliff. The precipitous cliff and meandering Nakdonggang also offer an enthralling bike ride. The bicycle path, passing through Sanhodaegyo (Bridge) and downtown Gumi, leads riders to Gumidaegyo (Bridge) without causing tiring them at all.

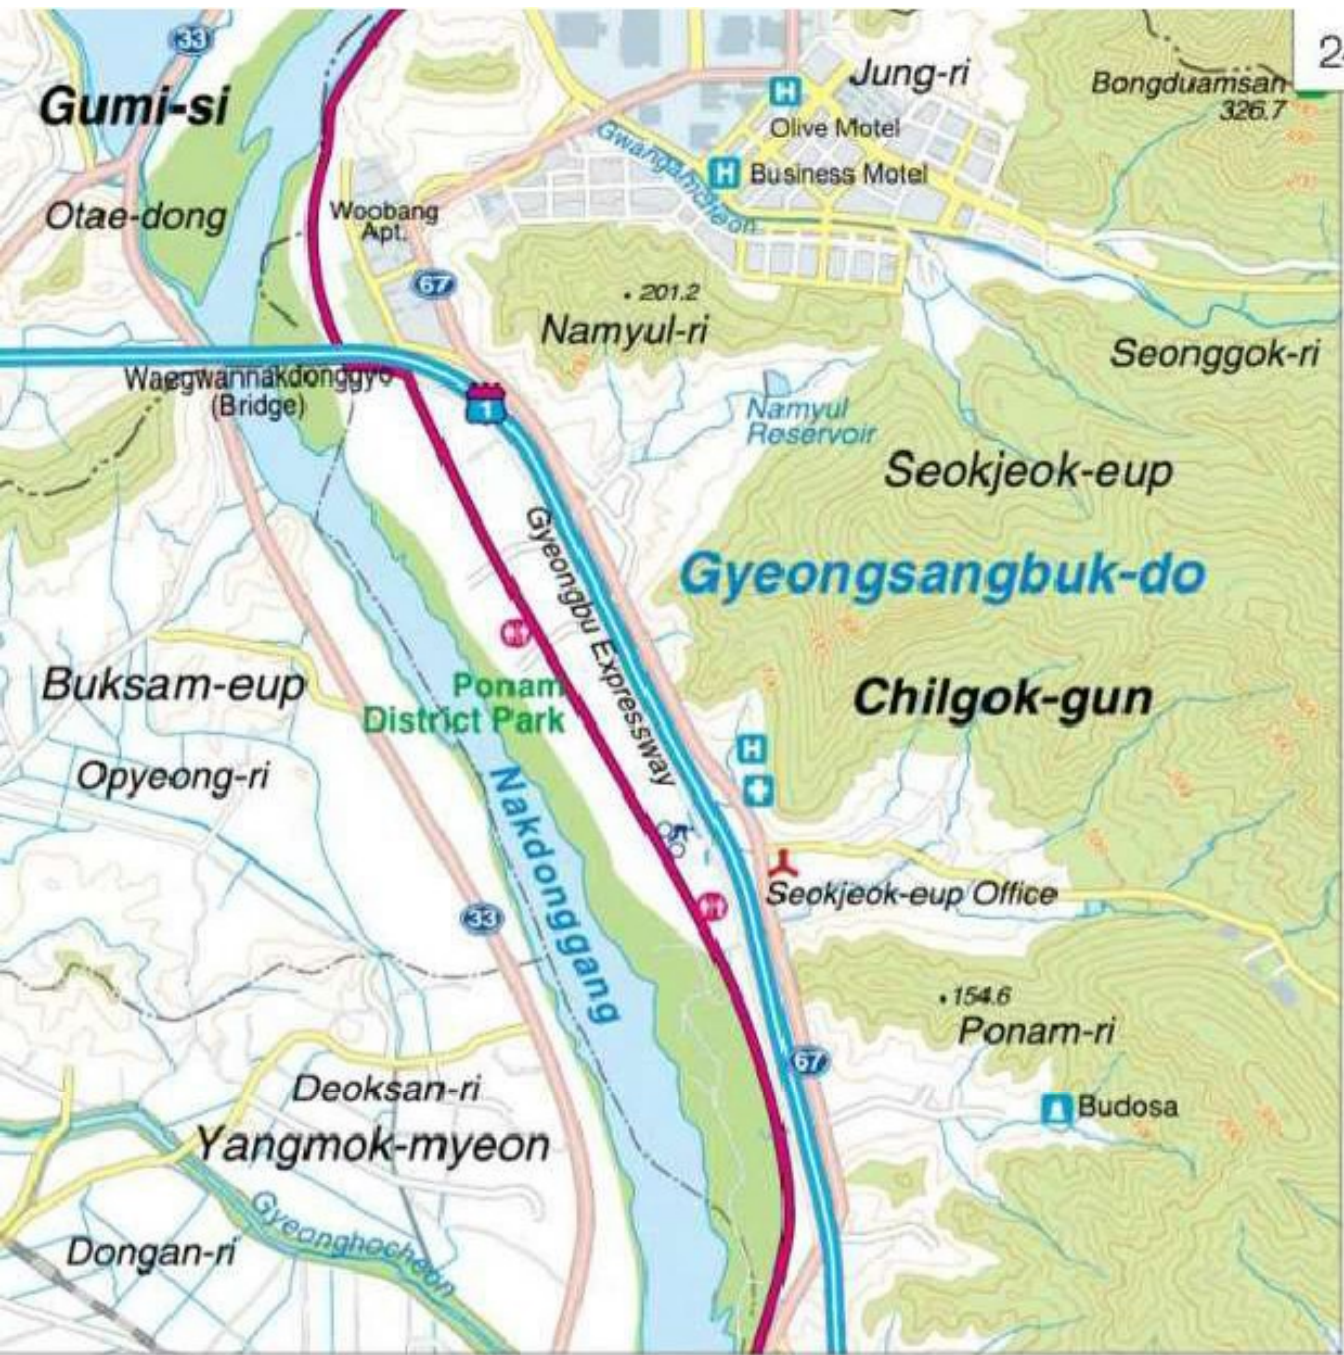

Gumi Ubiquitous Experience Center

Gumi, the equivalent of Silicon Valley

Gumi is home to manufacturing facilities for semiconductors, cell phones, LCD, and other high-tech electronic and IT products. Naturally, city has been called the Korean equivalent of Silicon Valley. The Gumi Industrial Complex is occupied by about 2,000 businesses which employ a total of 8,000 skilled workers. The KIT features the Gumi Ubiquitous Experience Hall to represent Gumi so that visitors can learn about the lifestyle of Gumi citizens.

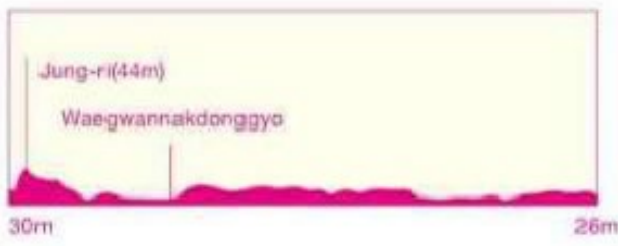

Chilgokbo

10-11 Namgumidaegyo – 2nd Waegwangyo

Distance : 15km
 Estimated time : 60 minutes
 The bicycle path, stretching from Namgumidaegyo (Bridge), covers Chilgok-gun. It runs alongside Nakdonggang on the right side and leads to Chilgokbo (Weir), where the bicycle path certification center and convenience store are located. There, you can quench your thirst with a few drops of water. After a break, keep pedaling straightforward, and you'll find Waegwan-eup, Chilgok-gun, where the old Waegwan Railroad Bridge, designated as a Registered Cultural Property, was built.

Waegwan Market

Waegwan Market first opened in 1981, and is close to many historic sites and local specialties. It is a permanent market and opens every 5 days. Notably, the market is so well known for selling a variety of products that customers living in adjacent cities such as Daegu and Gumi frequently make the trip. Boyang-tang, roast beef and rice soup with Sundae (boiled or steamed cow or pig intestines) are the market's delicacies, and they are also suitable as a meal.

The bicycle path continues to run along the river, allowing you to feel the breeze. If you want to see Korea traditional house, it is recommondable to go Samgaheon. A traditional house built during the Joseon Dynasty and located around Nakdonggang.

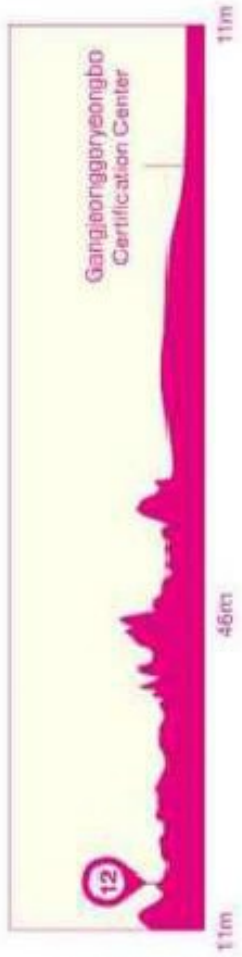

Samgaheon

Samgaheon is a traditional house built during the Joseon Dynasty, located in Myo-ri, Habin-myeon, Dalseong-gun, Daegu-si. It was originally built as a straw-roofed house in 1769, to which Anchaeh and Sarangchae (which mean main house and guest house, respectively) were added in 1809 and 1827. In 1874, Numaru was additionally built in Byeoldang (or detached house). Samga (or three abilities) refers to the ability to properly rule the world and the country, to reject recommended government positions and reward, and to willingly act as a righteous and resolute individual.

Goryeong, which used to be the capital of Great Gaya, thrived until the 6th century. The Jisan-dong Tombs contains about 700 tombs and the country's first No.44 and 45 sacrificial burial sites. Treasure No. 138 Gaya Golden Crown, earthen wares, wooden lacquer wares, and artifacts of the Great Gaya Period were excavated from the No. 44 burial site. The 2 kilometer-long path which runs along the tomb site may cause you to feel the ambience of Great Gaya, which thrived about 1,500 years ago.

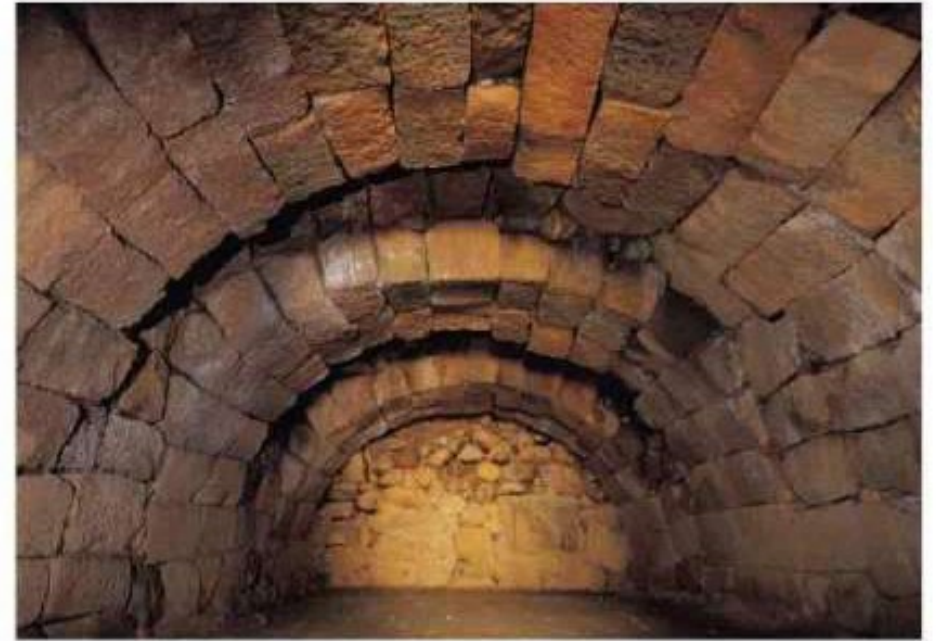

Dodongseowon

Dodongseowon (Lecture Hall) was built to commemorate the ethical theology and admirable acts of Kim Goeng-pil (1454-1504), a scholar of Joseon Dynasty (whose pen name was Han Hweon Dang). It originally was built in Ssanggye-dong, which stood at the foot of Biseulsan (Mt.) in Hyeonpung in 1568 (during the 1st year of King Seonjo's reign). It was burned to the ground during the invasion by the Japanese army in 1597. In 1605 (the 38th year of King Seonjo's reign), it was re-built as Borodongseowon (Lecture Hall) and was officially entitled "Dodongseowon" later. 📍 726, Gujiseoro, Guji-myeon, Dalseong-gun, Daegu-si ☎ 053-617-7620

Distance : 10km / Estimated time : 40 minutes

If you keep pedaling from Namjigyo (Bridge), then you will find Changnyeonghamanbo (Weir), located in the southernmost area of Nakdonggang. From this point on, Nakdonggang grows wider like a river.

Changnyeonghamanbo

19-20 Changnyeonghamanbo Certification Center – Susandaegyo

Distance : 20km / Estimated time : 70 minutes

When you ride past Changnyeonghamanbo (Weir), located southernmost among the eight dams around Nakdonggang, Yimhaejin (Port) comes into sight. The port called Yimhaejin was formed as a result of the sea water flowing 40km in reversing Nakdonggang. The bicycle path reaches Bonpogyo (Bridge) from the Yimhaejin intersection, but it is interrupted from place to place. It is usually better to take Local Road No. 1022. The local road has a relatively small traffic load, but it would be better not to ride too fast for safety reasons. Once you ride past Bonpogyo connecting Changnyeong-gun and Changwon-si, Bonpo Waterside Ecological Park will come into sight. From this point on, Bangjuk-gil goes straightforward. If you enter the path to the village in Changwon, you will soon find encounter Susandaegyo (Bridge).

What is a Bike Certification System?

Purchase a Certificate Handbook at the Certificate Center and get it stamped at each check-point during the course to prove that you have fully completed the course.

How to use your Certificate Handbook

- 1 Purchase your Certificate Handbook.
 - 2 Get it stamped (sequence does not matter).
 - 3 Have it checked for completion, receive sticker and medal.
- ☎ Office 031-880-2868 @ www.yj21.net

Grand slam	Certification of all courses	Grand slam sticker
Around the country bicycle path	Ara west sea lock – Nakdonggang Hagutduk	Sticker, Medal
4 Rivers bicycle path	Completion of all four rivers	Sticker, Medal
Each course	Completion on each course	Sticker

Where are the Certification Centers?

1. Look for the signs!

2. You can check by calling

1577-4359

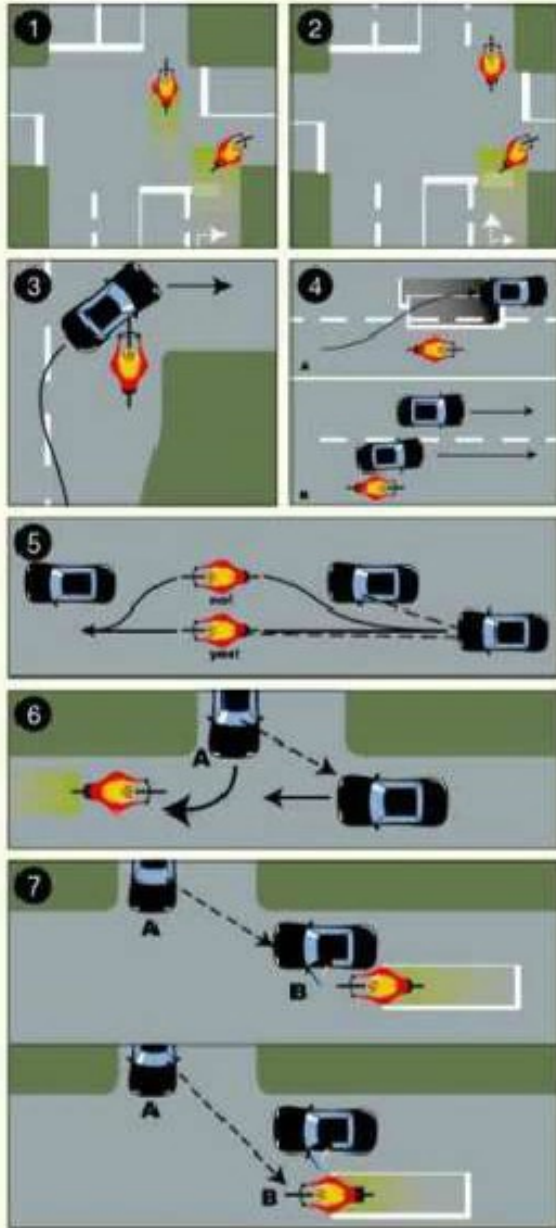

(Riverside Bicycle Path Call Center)
Or check <http://bike.go.kr>

How to Use the Unattended Certification Centers

- 1 First, check that there is a stamp in the booth.
- 2 Then, stamp your passport on the corresponding page.
- 3 Just in case you need more evidence to prove that you were really there, take a photo in front of the booth!

When riding on the road

- 1 If there is a right turn lane, shift to the other lane and pass through.
- 2 If one lane allows both a right turn and to go straight, ride on the left side of the right lane.
- 3 If you stay on the right side of the right lane, you may crash with a vehicle that is turning right.
- 4 If the lane is narrow, it is safer to ride on the center lane (A) rather than riding on the right side of the lane (B).
- 5 It is dangerous to ride moving in and out of the spaces between parked cars.
- 6 The directions that the dotted lines show are the drivers' usual direction of sight. Driving the wrong way in this case is dangerous because there is possibility for a head-on collision with the car taking a right turn.
- 7 Driver A may not see the bike rider due to vehicle B. Also, you must ride at least 1m away from vehicle B in case the driver door.

Enjoy a new experience of Korea along rivers!

Along the beautiful water streams of Korea, along the special path of Korean taste and beauty, a wonderful journey begins with the four major rivers. Four major rivers are not routes for professional races or intense competition. They are paths where you can learn to talk to nature and enjoy meditation by the sun setting. It is also for adventurous travelers who wish to explore different cultures and meet various people along their journey. Enjoy a new experience. Every road and every river stream of Korea will be with you on your journey.
